DARLINGTON BEEKEEPERS' ASSOCIATION HONEY SHOW

THURSDAY, 6th December
(BRAFFERTON VILLAGE HALL)

The format for the evening is as follows:

6.30 – 7.15pm Entries submitted. There will be an entry fee of 25p per entry and prizes will be issued as follows : FIRST : £3; SECOND : £2; THIRD : £1 in each class in addition to the presentation of Certificates and Rosettes.

7.30pm Tony Jefferson (Whitby Beekeepers' Association and National Chief Honey Judge) will outline the requirements needed to run a successful Honey Show and will give advice to members on how to prepare beekeeping products for entry. He will then hold a private JUDGING SESSION in which he will work through each classification and award places.

8pm Refreshments and drinks. Members are invited to bring along their own alcoholic (and non-alcoholic) drinks. A finger buffet will be provided free of charge. Tea and coffee will also be served throughout the evening. Entertainment in the form of a quiz (beekeeping and general knowledge), honey tasting, films and demonstrations will take place during this time.

9pm. Tony will finalise the awards of 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in each class. Certificates will be written up for each class and prize money allocated. Tony will also comment on the standard and quality of the entries and give advice for future reference. He will announce the winners of each section and award certificates as appropriate.

9.30. End
